Telehealth Boosts Veterans' Management of Chronic Care (Healthcare IT News)

According to a new study, veterans with chronic conditions who are provided with home health technology from the Department of Veterans Affairs are better able to manage their health and avoid hospitalization.

The study appears in the current issue of the journal Telemedicine and e-Health and was authored by VA national telehealth staff members. It looks at health outcomes from 17,025 VA home telehealth patients.

Program Helps Wounded Veterans Become Brokers (Philadelphia Inquirer)

Friday may not have been the best day to launch an employment program in finance - even one with the great intention of providing job training for wounded veterans.

After all, Friday was the day the U.S. Labor Department announced the loss of more than half a million jobs in November, including 32,000 from the financial-services sector.

privately-owned, for-profit organization, incorporated in the State of Maryland under TIN# 57-1161169.

Under our FSS/VA contract V797P-4516a, Maxim Government Services is one of the few GSA Schedule holders fully approved to staff every category of healthcare personnel within the 621-I Schedule. Our unique ability to deliver long-term, contracted staff and traveling medical professionals, as well as an abundance of qualified and pre-screened per diem and part-time staff, gives MGS a strong understanding of the expectations of providing contract healthcare staff in federal government healthcare facilities.

Five Ways to Build Leadership Skills in an Entry-Level Job (allhealthcare.com)

If you want to start developing leadership skills in your first job, here's Lindsey Pollak's advice: Begin with your eyes and ears. That's what she did in her first role as a program coordinator for the American Woman's Economic Development Corp. in Stamford, Connecticut.

"My pay was very low, so my terrific boss the executive director of the organization used to let me tag along to meetings, conferences and networking events," says Pollak, author of Getting from College to Career. "I would even sit in the room with her when she made some important sales calls to potential funders."
