The Military's Showdown Over PTSD

(CBSnews.com) Twenty-two year old combat medic Jonathan Norrell volunteered for every mission during his year in Iraq.

He was bombed, ambushed, treating wounded under fire - and the memories still haunt him, CBS News correspondent Kimberly Dozier reports.

"The things that affected me the most weren't the IEDs, which I went through six or seven of, and all the firefights, and all the combat," Norrell said. "It was the psychological stuff, the people I failed to help." Click here to read the full article.

We Owe Veterans Better Care (Wausau Daily Herald) In the wake of World War I, a number of people wrote response to the famous poem, "In Flanders Fields," by Col. John McCrae of Canada.

One of the most powerful is R.W. Lillard's poem "America's Answer." Here is the second stanza:

Fear not that ye have died for naught.

The torch ye threw to us we caught.

Ten million hands will hold it high

And freedom's light shall never die!

How well those words summarize the meaning of what we are doing today as we honor our wartime dead. Click here to read the full article.

Government Job Opportunities

Under our FSS/VA contract V797P-4516a, Maxim Government Services is one of the few GSA Schedule holders fully approved to staff every category of healthcare personnel within the 621-I Schedule. Our unique ability to deliver long-term, contracted staff and traveling medical professionals, as well as an abundance of qualified and pre-screened per diem and part-time staff, gives MGS a strong understanding of the expectations of providing contract healthcare staff in federal government healthcare facilities.
