Rule Changes Will Give 265,000 Veterans Health Care
(www.stripes.com)

John Kenny Baker was stunned when he applied for veterans' health care last fall and was told his household income was too high.

"I'm retired, and my wife makes about $50,000 a year," the 65-year-old Army veteran said. "That's not a lot, but they told me in February we still make too much."

Army Helps Warriors in Transition Heal Closer to Home
(www.army.mil)

The Army Warrior Transition Command overseeing the Warrior Transition Units is issuing refined criteria and instructions for assignment to WTUs to allow more Reserve and National Guard Soldiers to recover in their hometowns through community-based WTUs.

Many of the warriors in transition will not only have the benefit of recovering at home, they'll also be able to use local civilian health care facilities, while remaining under the direct supervision of Army unit leaders and medical case managers.

Maxim Government Services (MGS), a division of Maxim Healthcare Services, provides healthcare professionals with employment opportunities in federal government agencies across the nation. We are a privately-owned, for-profit organization, incorporated in the State of Maryland under TIN# 57-1161169.

Under our FSS/VA contract V797P-4516a, Maxim Government Services is one of the few GSA Schedule holders fully approved to staff every category of healthcare personnel within the 621-I Schedule. Our unique ability to deliver long-term, contracted staff and traveling medical professionals, as well as an abundance of qualified and pre-screened per diem and part-time staff, gives MGS a strong understanding of the expectations of providing contract healthcare staff in federal government healthcare facilities.

Career Tip of the Month

Leverage Volunteer Work On Your Resume
(www.allhealthcare.com)

You may have altruistic reasons for volunteering, but giving your time has career-enhancing power, too. “Volunteer work, whether in addition to a current job or an activity in between jobs, shows an employer that you are willing to try new experiences, be involved in your community and generally demonstrates a willingness to take initiative and make things happen,” says Kara Montermoso, content manager at Idealist.org, a site that connects people and nonprofit organizations.
