Executives, Veterans Go On a Mentoring Mission

(DallasNews.com) Lt. Randy Shields risked his life every day for a year, shepherding officials through Baghdad. Now Sidney Goodfriend and Leland Burns want to reward his service by shepherding him through corporate America.

Mr. Goodfriend set up American Corporate Partners in New York to match battle-hardened veterans with executive mentors from six companies.

Career Tip of the Month

Return to Nursing (Monster.com) Thinking of reentering the nursing profession after a hiatus? You're not alone. Many nurses take time off to raise kids, care for parents or try a different line of work.

Getting your foot back in the door after an extended absence requires determination and dedication, but the current nursing shortage could make you a hot commodity.
