Career Tip of the Month

What to Look for in a Healthcare Staffing Company (MaximNurses.com) There are many advantages to working for a healthcare staffing company. For people starting out and those considering a change in focus, this work allows time to explore a variety of career options. Many nurses and healthcare workers turn to staffing companies to supplement their income. Some prefer the variety of work that staffing companies can offer. They enjoy the constant challenge of new assignments and new people. Veteran nurses who teach or have moved on to other fields often use this work to maintain their skill level. Also, staffing companies offer retired nurses the opportunity to earn extra money by working occasionally. Read the full article on MaximNurses.com.
